It's showtime again!

Come with me on the trip of a lifetime, The 2016 Scotty Brown NYC Tour to the Gran Fondo this coming May.

To me, New York City is the best city in the world. Having travelled there for over 17 years, I have a great love for the vibrancy, buzz, shopping and lifestyle that only NYC can offer. Taking you on this trip gives me goose bumps!

The NYC Gran Fondo is either a 50 or 100 mile bike race (Gran Fondo) with 7000 entrants. It starts on the (exclusively closed) iconic George Washington Bridge and winds north on closed roads following the Hudson River through the stunning country side of NY state and finishes with breathtaking views of Manhattan Island and the New York City skyline.

We will be staying in a spanking, boutique hotel in the Columbus Circle, Manhattan, only a block from Central Park and walking distance to the most fabulous of attractions. It is also very close to the startline of the GFNY.

This trip is part cycling, part adventure and part lifestyle! Let me make this crystal clear, this is a trip just as much for the city, vibe and lifestyle as it is for the ride. NYC offers the best shopping known to man (& woman) and we will be there in sale season, offering the best purchases you'll ever find.

Our itinerary is loose for this bucket list trip, but rest assured, you will not be left feeling you've wanted more. If you want to bring a "cycle-less" partner, go for it. While we are riding the loops of the iconic Central Park, they'll be off buying you some sweet new kit! We live NYC, shop NYC, eat NYC, seeing the attractions together, or go it alone if you prefer. You will have your own time to breath and enjoy the city, while taking part in a unforgettable event that is truly in the greatest city in the world.

SPACES ARE VERY LIMITED. The price is remarkably affordable which includes a fabulous leaving dinner, tickets to the GFNY, exclusive entry to the GFNY or the 50 mile BEAR, a NYGF race jersey, race pack, ticket to the NYC bike expo, and daily Scotty Brown (& Jess) excitement! There will be shopping on 5th Avenue and of course in the famous SOHO district, visiting the World Trade Centre, catching the subway & the famous NY yellow cabs, daily rides in the stunning Central Park, visiting the Empire State Building, eating at the most fabulous spots, maybe even catching a Broadway show.

You want bang for buck? You got it, full stop. You only live once.
Life's not a dress rehearsal!
Be there May 11-17th 2016.
